"CHICK" EVANS WINS

WESTERN GOLF TITLE
Chicago Player Defeats Clarence Wolf in Final Match, Victory Fifth Since 1909.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 17.—Charles "Chick" Evans, Jr., of Chicago, tonight was taking back to its "home shelf" the massive silver bowl, emblematic of the Amateur Golf Championship of the West. Evans today defeated Clarence Wolf, St. Louis, 5 up and 4 to play, in the finals of the tournament of the Western Golf Association, and for the fifth time since 1909 became the monarch of Western golf. No other golfer has duplicated this accomplishment in the West.

Wolf went into today's match an outsider—a dark horse. But at the end of the first nine it looked as if the career of the four-hundred yarder was over. Evans, however, was not to be so easily discouraged. He was all square at the turn and Wolf was ahead 1 up and 4 to play. Evans, however, was not to be so easily discouraged. He was all square at the turn and Wolf was ahead 1 up and 4 to play.

Evans increased his lead to two by winning the fifteenth. Wolf won back a hole on the next green but Evans proceeded to take the seventeenth and eighteenth in order, ending the morning play, three up.

The afternoon play began with a halving of the first two holes. Evans won the long third with a birdie four. The only birdie hole of the match was a four up. The fifth went to Wolf, when Evans' run-up second hole in a trap and he smothered his out. The three succeeding holes were perfectly played, Wolf redeeming some of his erratic driving by splendid recoveries.

On the ninth a fine approach putt gave Evans to set a four, which was good enough to win the hole and give him an advantage of four at 11.

Evans played leisurely for halves on ten and eleven, and it was evident that he was content to play a "safety first" game the rest of the way. The two following holes also were played leisurely.

Both Punch Out Line Drives. Coming to the fourteenth Wolf found himself in a trap and he smothered his out. The three succeeding holes were perfectly played, Wolf redeeming some of his erratic driving by splendid recoveries.

ATHLETIC STARS COMPETE IN THE HARVARD STADIUM

Olympic Candidates and National A. A. U. Champions in a Brilliant Program.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., July 17.—Athletes from all parts of the country qualified for places on the American Olympic team in the final trials at the Harvard Stadium today in a track and field meet, the average of which has never been equaled. While no world records were broken, two American field event figures were surpassed. In addition, two Amateur Athletic Union senior championship records went by the board and another was equaled.

Members of the American Olympic committee who select the team which will represent the United States at Antwerp next month expressed the opinion that the fifty-two combination would be the best balanced that ever sailed from these shores.

The Olympic trials, which were combined with the Amateur Athletic Union annual senior championships, attracted more than 20,000 spectators to the Harvard Stadium, which afforded a spectacular view of the track and field events, which opened with a dress rehearsal of the parade of flags by the American Olympic team.

Western athletes scored heavily in the record books. In the 100-yard dash, J. H. Brown, of the Boston A. A. Intercollegiate, won in 14.1 seconds, a record that has stood since 1914. In the 220-yard dash, J. H. Brown, of the Boston A. A. Intercollegiate, won in 32.1 seconds, a record that has stood since 1914.
